TABLE MOUNTAIN RANCH SHOW RULES AND HIGH POINT INFORMATION

All exhibitors are responsible for reading and understanding the Rules and Regulations outlined herein by the management of Table Mountain Ranch, Inc. (hereafter be referred to as TMR).

SHOW WILL BE COVERED BY USEF RULES

Shows are open to all breeds and ages. Professionals are welcome to enter in age appropriate classes.

Strollers, umbrellas and loose dogs are not allowed for the safety of those riding.

Apparel: ASTM/SEI Certified Helmets are REQUIRED for all jumping classes. Exhibitors must wear boots with heels, long or short sleeved button down or polo style shirts and long pants. Hunt coats optional.

Dangerous, sick or unruly horses: Show managers reserve the right to ask any exhibitor unable to reasonably maintain control of their horse to forfeit a class, or the show entirely. Same rule applies for horses visibly sick or injured as determined by show management, attending veterinarian or judge. Refunds will not be given in such instances.

Refunds: Exhibitors paying in full for any or all classes prior to showing may not receive refunds for any classes scratched. Open checks left with Secretary during registration may add or scratch classes at the Office only, not at the Gate.

Inclement Weather: No rain date will be set for make-up shows due to inclement weather. Show management reserves right to move the entire show to indoor arena if necessary, to facilitate completing the class list.
